

WHAT GOES INTO A

CUP OF RESPECT

75% of Nescafé coffee was responsibly sourced in 2020

- ✓ Traceable to the group of farms where it was grown
- ✓ Produced in accordance with sustainability standards equivalent to our Responsible Sourcing Standard
- ✓ Verified or certified by independent third parties

10,000+ women and young farmers empowered

10,000+ farmers benefited from business skills training

Strengthened human rights monitoring in Mexico and the Philippines, expanding to new origins

EMPOWERING COFFEE COMMUNITIES

IMPROVING FARMERS' LIVELIHOODS

900,000+ farmers trained on best practices

230 agronomists providing hands-on support

235 million coffee plantlets distributed

15 new varieties released

Improving farm economics in Mexico, Côte d'Ivoire, Honduras and Vietnam

REDUCING OUR ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

53% reduction in water withdrawal in our factories

46% reduction in GHG emissions in our factories

20 Nescafé factories using leftover coffee husks as biofuel, saving the equivalent of 555'000 barrels of oil per year

JOIN US ON OUR SUSTAINABILITY JOURNEY

All figures and percentages refer to 2010-2020 period unless stated otherwise.

100%

responsibly sourced coffee by 2025

100%

recyclable or reusable packaging by 2025

NET ZERO

helping Nestlé achieve its net zero emissions target by 2050

MEASURING PROGRESS & REPORTING TRANSPARENTLY

- ✓ Independent certifications and programs
4C, Rainforest Alliance, others
- ✓ Impact measurement
13 origins assessed by the Rainforest Alliance

Towards a regenerative and inclusive coffee sector

Our vision is a resilient and regenerative coffee agricultural system that protects and restores forests, drives sustainable livelihoods for farmers, promotes human rights and develops a circular business.

nescafé.com

NESCAFÉ